House-listing

Households in urban areas can inform their nearest ward office if the census enumerator is yet to visit them to conduct the House-listing exercise and collect data for the National Population Registry. Those in rural areas can inform village accountants in their jurisdiction if the census exercise has not been initiated. The Census Directorate has also opened two helplines. Contact 080 2274 1352 and 080-2550 2488. There is also a toll-free number: 1800 345 0111.
