

Training for census

BANGALORE, DHNS: For the Census of India 2011, 198 wards of the Bruhat Bangalore Mahanagara Palike has been constituted into 146 charges.

Census charge officers who would be conducting the houselisting and housing census and preparation of National Population Register, have been appointed vide a notification issued by the Principal Census officer and Commissioner, BBMP.

A one-day training to the charge officers was convened recently A M Kunjappa, Additional Principal Census Officer and Additional Commissioner (Administration), BBMP on behalf of the Principal Census Officer and Commissioner, BBMP.

The meeting is the first of its kind in the training calendar for the 2011 census. The Director of Census Operations, Karnataka presided over the meeting and also imparted thorough training on the important tasks before Charge officers in preparation of houselisting and house census and National Population Register.